

Organizational Support

Grants for Patient Organizations

Transparency

At Janssen, we provide resources to Healthcare Organizations (HCOs) that are committed to patient and caregiver education and support.

Applications for grants, charitable contributions and sponsorships are evaluated based on the highest standards. We hold ourselves accountable to ensure we are providing these funding opportunities, in an appropriate manner based on the guiding principles established by the Innovative Medicine Canada's Code of Ethical Practices.

Janssen is pleased to disclose the names of the HCOs that we support as part of our commitment to high ethical standards and greater transparency in our business practices.
